2024 Route 66 Air Attack 7V7 Tournament

Local High School football teams went head-to-head in this one-day tournament.

On Wednesday, June 19th, seventeen junior varsity and varsity football teams competed in the 2024 Route 66 Air Attack 7V7 Tournament. This was a one-day event at Allison Sports Town, where teams competed for playoff seedings and then participated in bracket play. There were teams competing were from the following high schools: Nixa, Kickapoo, Glendale, Lighthouse, Springfield Catholic, Willard, Logan Rogersville, Strafford, and Central. Playoff seedings were determined by overall record, head-to-head, points differential, points scored, points allowed, and a coin flip.

All teams had a great performance in the blazing sun and 90-degree heat. The junior varsity semifinals were Nixa winning over Kickapoo 19-0 and Willard beating Glendale 14-2. The finals came down to a tough battle between Nixa and Willard. Nixa came out on top finishing 20-12.

The varsity's bracket was filled with a ton of tough competition and close games. The semifinals were Logan Rogersville winning 18-0 over Glendale and Nixa beating Springfield Catholic 29-18. The final game between Nixa and Logan Rogersville was a battle. Nixa came out with the win and the final score was 18-16. It is expected for this event to make a return in 2025 so make sure you don't miss out.
