Springfield Area Ultimate is making their home Allison Sports Town.

Ultimate Frisbee has been growing over the years and now it will be out at Allison Sports Town.

Earlier this week Allison Sports Town and Springfield Area Ultimate finalized a five year agreement to bring ultimate frisbee to the facility starting in 2025. With this people should expect to see more ultimate frisbee practices, leagues, tournaments and camps out at Allison Sports Town. Springfield Area Ultimate has been around since 1978. They believe in “providing Springfield and the surrounding areas with a fun, inclusive, safe space to build community through ultimate frisbee.”

Chris Martin, the General Manager of Allison Sports Town said, "We are excited to enter into this multi-year agreement with Springfield Area Ultimate. Whether it is league play, tournaments or camps-we are looking forward to exciting Ultimate Frisbee action at Allison Sports Town."

The facility is expecting to host more than 70 events and camps in 2025. The facility is excited to continue their growth and expand the sports and opportunities offered at the facility for athletes of all ages.
